Introduction

Learning and speaking a second language has become an urgent need more than a hobby, especially in this age of globalization.

For this reason, we were interested in presenting you this book entitled “Arabic Conversation for English Speakers”. This book takes the form of dialogues and sentences which are classified in a docile and organized style away from any complications. This aims at facilitating learning Arabic in a correct way and as soon as possible. Further, the book is directly connected with an audio CD where the user can combine both the book and the CD.

This product saves you many benefits that include:

- Many free reading topics that are derived from daily life.
- Learning the art of the Arabic and English conversations fluently.
- The possibility of listening to the lessons through the different sound facilities to make use of them wherever you go.
- A clear and gradual explanation, with two readings; one slow and one fast to enable the receptor to pronounce and understand the speeches properly.

This book was prepared by specialists in Arabic language teaching. The book also contains a group of the various lessons derived from daily life and “written in both English and Arabic”.

Finally, we hope this book to achieve the required goal and the desired benefit for whomsoever seeks knowledge and development.
